

MADE FOR THEM

Congratulations as we celebrate your 5th anniversary. This September 30th banquet and event is a time that Made for Them, supporters and community to reflect on your accomplishments and service provided for those who are most vulnerable and in need.

It's the younger members of our community who feel they have nobody to turn to when they are tricked, manipulated, coerced and even violently forced into Human Trafficking. These crimes can be horrific and the scars long lasting. By using your artistic talent to provide services and healing, your efforts have not gone unnoticed by those who are on the front line and see the value of your efforts.

The vice unit recognizes that one of the key tools to ending these crimes is the education of families and community to the dangers of unhealthy relationships that these offenders seek and your efforts should be applauded.

Thank you for what you continue to do.
